ASHLEY BAKER

Welcome

To Mill River

"One cannot step twice in the same river, for fresh waters are forever flowing around us."

-Heraclitus-

2005 - 2006

Mill River Union High School - North Clarendon, Vermont

MR. McSHANE

Everyday as we walk down the halls, we see Mr. McShane, or "Mr. Mc." as most of us fondly know him, standing outside his classroom, waving and smiling as each student goes by. It is impossible for anyone not to smile warmly back at him. His co-workers have described him as "friendly" and "caring" and the students are heard commenting about how "totally awesome" he is.

Friendliness is not his only attribute; he is also incredibly smart. His teaching approach is perfect for students, very traditional with a fun twist. Mr. Brownell comments, "He is a teacher who can reach almost any student. He makes things interesting, no matter what level."

He speaks German fluently and originally aspired to become a pilot, but attended college for geology. Mr. Mc. began his teaching career at Proctor when there was a need for a German teacher. He came to Mill River in the fall of 1984, and we've been lucky to have him ever since.

Mr. McShane has been happily married to his wife, Nance, for the past 35 years and has two children, John III and Katie. Mr. Mc. met his wife at a Poultney basketball game. He loves the outdoors, hunting and camping. Also, as a hobby, he enjoys collecting guns and knives.

Whether a student has been in a class taught by Mr. Mc. or not, everyone knows what an admirable person he is. He not only teaches English but lessons about the world and life after high school. Mr. Young describes him as one of the brightest people in our school and says, "He has that teddy bear quality." You cannot help but love Mr. Mc., and we all appreciate seeing his smiling face in the hallways everyday. We, the Class of 2006, would like to thank Mr. McShane for the lessons he's given us that will always be remembered.

A large group photograph of the 1999-2000 football team and staff. The group is posed in approximately 10 rows in front of a brick building. The front rows consist of cheerleaders wearing sweaters with "TIGERS" and "1999-2000" printed on them. Behind them are the football players in their jerseys, some with numbers visible (e.g., 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 57, 58, 59, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, 71, 72, 73, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91, 92, 93, 94, 95, 96, 97, 98, 99, 100). The back rows include coaches and staff members in jackets and casual attire. The group is arranged in a wide, slightly curved formation. The background is a brick wall with a dark door visible in the center. The ground is a flat, dark surface, possibly asphalt or concrete. The overall tone is formal but captures a team spirit.
